Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

This is a first office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over McInerney (UK Patent No. 2,379,464).

McInerney teaches a timber block comprising elongate upper and lower timber members (3) being spaced from and parallel to each other, a plurality of timber components (2) extending between the upper and lower timber members, the timber components being disposed spaced apart lengthwise of the block and parallel to each other, the timber components having co-planar faces inset from the edges of the upper and lower timber members, a sheet panel (8) secured to one side of the timber components, and a plurality of holes formed on the edge of the lower timber member. Although McInerney does not define the upper timber member also having holes aligned with the holes at the lower timber member as claimed, it would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art to modify the timber block of McInerney having the upper and lower timber members both having holes for aligning two timber block one over another to be connected together as a common practice in the construction of connection beams together.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-19 are allowed.

Art Unit: 3637

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record, whether taken individually or in combination, does not reveal or render obvious a timber block comprising at least one of an elongate upper and lower timber members being provided with markings offset relative to the timber components which extending vertically between the upper and lower timber members and spaced apart lengthwise to each other to allow the block being cut without cutting through the timber components as claims 1 and 19.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Citations

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Lichti '839, Navon '437, Sanford et al. 872, Wilson '306, Ojalvo '974 teach various timber blocks having elongate upper and lower timber members and a plurality of components disposed therebetween as similar to the claimed invention. Edmondson et al. '180, Raber '411, Paul et al. '655 teach various beams having markings.
